

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Lubomír JUNEK
Nationally: Czech
Present employment: Institute of Applied Mechanics Brno, Czech Republic
Date of Birth: September 28, 1960
Current Position: Director of Institute of Applied Mechanics Brno
Languages: English, Russian
Education: Ph.D. Doctoral study at Military academy in Brno, Czech Republic, Theme: Analysis of residual stress after welding and heat treatment
Engineer Diploma in Mechanical Engineering, Brno University of Technology, Czech Republic, Faculty of Mechanical Engineering, Department of Chemical Engineering

Personal activities:

- President of the Czech Welding Society – till 2011,
- Representative of Czech Republic in International Institute of Welding (IIW) organization
- Chairman of Organisation board of IIW Annual meeting and International conference 2005 in Prague
- Representative of Czech Republic in OECD sub-group Metal aging of NPP component
- Chairman of The Main Committee of the Association of Mechanical Engineers of Czech Republic
- Chairman of board for development of Normative Technical Documentation of the Association of Mechanical Engineers (NTD A.S.I.) for components and piping of NPP WWER type
- External teacher in postgraduate courses of welding engineers at Technical University of Brno
- Chairman at the state final examinations of master's degrees at Technical University of Brno
- Member of EPRI WRTC (Welding Repair and Technology Center) Technical Advisory Committee
- More than 30 publications on international conferences